Mr. Jos. S. Gibson is busy building a foundation for a dwelling house on the lot he recently purchased from Dr. I. H. Trimble. It is his intention to build a modern business house, between his residence and the Hotel Commercial.

Our post master requests us to thank his patrons for their kind indulgence while serving them in his temporary quarters. His new office will soon be completed which will be so nicely arranged that it would do credit to a much larger place than Monterey.

Mr. J. M. Colaw is busy engaged in getting ready to build. He has had the old dwelling torn down and now has a sufficient quantity of stone on the ground for the foundation for his new dwelling. It will be a modern structure and will add much to the appearance of Main Street.

Our stock of shoes is now complete. Over 500 pairs to select from. All new stock the best made. We can fit your smallest baby and you too, unless you require a No 13, which is 13 inches long by 6 inches wide—Is it too small? Give us a trial. We will appreciate it.—C. S. Waybright & Co., Crabbottom, Va.

Mr L A Orndorff received by wire the sad news of the sudden death, from paralysis, of his sister, Miss Minerva Orndorff, which occurred at her home at Woodstock on the 18th. In this affliction Mr. Orndorff is not without the sympathy of his friends here, and of Highland people he can justly claim a large number.

The Harrisonburg Free Press says: Our farmers are getting very careless about their grammar. While driving out in the country recently we noticed the following sign posted on the gate of an wheat field: "If any man's or woman's cows or oxen gets in this here field his or her tail will be cut off as the case may be."

Crabbottom people tell us the heavy rains of the past ten days have done them a great deal of damage. A slide on Mr W L Chew's farm, caused by the wet weather, damaged him one hundred dollars or more. The bill was not steep, yet a body of earth one hundred yards wide slipped down a distance of 25 or 30 yards. A large walnut tree was carried along and now remains standing straight, and appears to have been not in the least disturbed by its ride.

Mrs. Mary M. McNulty.

After a long, and for much of the time, a painful illness, Mrs. Mary Margaret McNulty, wife of Mr. J. S. McNulty, entered into rest, on June 11th 1901.

For quite a while before her death, it was known that her illness would most probably prove fatal. When she became aware of the near approach of death, she un-murmuringly signified her willingness to go if it were the will of her Lord, and testified to the comfort and consolations of the gospel. Not a great while before she passed into unconsciousness, surrounded by her immediate family and near relatives, she fell peacefully asleep on Tuesday morning.

Mary Margaret McClung, was born Jan. 28th 1838, at the family homestead, Clover Creek, Va., and was thus in the sixty third year of her life. On Dec. 20th 1865 she was united in marriage to Mr. J. S. McNulty of Highland county. Of this union there are surviving, six children, three boys and three girls all of whom save Mr. L. D. McNulty of Craigsville and Mrs. C. H. Dobbs Jr., of Senatobia, Miss., made their home with the father and mother.

On June 8rd 1866, Mrs. McNulty under the pastoral care of Wm. T. Price, of loved memory in this section, united with the Presbyterian church at McDowell, Va. She was an unassuming and faithful christian, exhibiting a meekness and unobtrusive piety most refreshing and commendable. A faithful church-goer, her face was always noted when present, and missed when she failed to appear at the public worship. Her life was her best encomium. On Wednesday, June 11th at 1 o'clock a large gathering of friends and relatives met at the Presbyterian church, at McDowell to pay the last tribute of respect to one who had been so interested in the work and worship of the McDowell church. The service was conducted by Rev. J. C. Johnson, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr. Weikle of the Methodist church.

The service as she requested was simple and brief. The pastor read a few passages from God's word, and there was singing and prayer by Mr Weikle. After the service in the church at McDowell, the procession continued their progress to the family burial ground at Clover Creek where the remains were interred.

The Pall Bearers were Messrs. G. Siron, Marvin Hildebrand, J. J. Hiner, A. Jones, J. B. Bradshaw, C. C. Hansel and A. A. Alexander. In the death of Mrs. McNulty, the community mourns a helpful and exemplary friend and neighbor her family mourns an estimable wife and tender mother, her church mourns an earnest christian helper. "Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he priset her. "Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all."

"Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. "Give her of the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the gates." Prov. xxxi, 28-31.

Naples Notes.

As we seldom see anything in the columns of the RECORDER from this isolated part we thought a few items might be of interest to some of your readers.

Crabbottom Locals.

CRABBOTTOM, June 18, 1901.—Work has commenced on the foundation of the U. B. Church at this place.

Mr Casper Judy of Hampden is making some improvements about his store.

Mr Roy Waggoner, a medical student of the University of Virginia is at home again.

Mrs Mollie Patterson and little daughter of this place are visiting relatives in Pocahontas this week.

Aunt Mary Arbogast was in town Monday doing some shopping. Miss Bonnie C. Wimer is visiting friends in Augusta county.

At the examination held here last Saturday by our physicians, Mrs. Amby Wimer was pronounced a lunatic, and will be taken the the Western State Hospital at Staunton in a few days.

Mr and Mrs B Wimer were visiting friends and relatives on North Fork, last week.

Mr A. C. Corbin is painting Mr. Robt S Newman's house this week.

While passing through Greenbank last week, the writer had the pleasure of calling at the M. E. Parsonage and greeting the family of our former pastor, Rev J W McNeil.

Mr Amby Rexrode of Dry Run and a Miss Shrader of Thorn were married last week. This is Mr Rexrode's third wife, but "that's no figure for the Pendleton boys"

The engineering corps have completed their line from Hightown down through the Bottom almost to the Walker survey, then, they tunneled the mountain on paper below Mr E D Swecker's place.

M A Colaw returned from Dunmore, W. Va., and reported everything in a flourishing condition except the roads which are very little better than the Pike from Hightown to Top Alleghany.

The most terrific hail and rain storm ever known to the oldest citizens of Frank's Run passed over that section last Wednesday evening June 12th, doing a great deal of damage to crops, farms and public highways. The Johnstown flood was no comparison, still the continued rains since then have made matters much worse than at first.

Vanderpool Gap in the Way.

After the C & I railroad engineers moved to Hightown, we heard a couple of young ladies of the town engaged in a conversation something like this: "Fannie, don't it take an awfully awful long time to locate a tunnel? Yes, Jennie, but why do you ask, are you thinking of going into the business? No, not yet a while, but I was thinking if it had not been for that horrid Vanderpool Gap the engineers would have located a tunnel here, and would have been with us yet, now, isn't it just too bad? Yes, Jennie, it is perfectly awful—those boys were just too sweet for anything."

Negroes Not Recognized.

The Washington State Grand Lodge of Masons has rescinded the resolution adopted two years ago recognizing negro Masonry.

The action of the lodge at that time was severely criticised all over the United States and as a result the next session of the grand lodge attempted to return to the old established principles, but the resolution was so drawn that sister lodges refused to construe it as an honest expression. The lodge has now in unmistakable language, made its position known.—Sun.

ST. VITUS' DANCE

AKRON, O., Jan. 8, 1900. DR. F. FENNER, Fredonia, N. Y. "I have sold many dozens of your St. Vitus' Dance Balm, and every case has been cured by it. It has proved a blessing here." ALLEN CLARK DRUG CO.

SURE AND QUICK CURE!

Do You Know

That there are more people humbugged in buying jewelry than in any other line? That in its sale through the regular retail store, larger profits are made than on any other line? That lately I have completed an arrangement by which I can furnish you anything in the jewelry line from the smallest scarf pin to the finest watch or clock? That I have from 3 or 4 leading wholesale jewelry houses of this county, their latest catalogues, which represent so accurately the immense line carried by each, that to look through them is equal to a personal visit to the most elegant jewelry store in the land? That if you will look at my catalogues, give me your order for any article you desire, you will be convinced that it is a satisfactory, safe and cheap way to buy jewelry? That I can buy as cheaply as the retail man, that I have no store to keep up, no money invested in stock, no clerks to pay, am satisfied with a small profit, and for these reasons can make you prices that when compared with the figures at the regular jewelry store, are ridiculously low? If you do not know call at the Postoffice and I will be pleased to inform you of these
